ANGEL AWARD HONORS WAZT

At the 28th International Angel Awards, the Excellence in Media Association selected a WAZT local production to receive the coveted Silver Angel Award for 2005.

"Portrait of a Valley Preacher" documents the life and times of Page County Pastor Ethel Painter of Stanley, Virginia. The program was originally conceived by Ellen Franklin and produced by Kelly and Chris Wetzel for telecast by WAZT and the AZTV Network Stations throughout the Shenandoah Valley of Virginia.

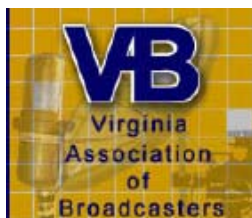

WAZT was named the Television Station of the Year by the National Religious Broadcasters in 1998 and serves the spiritual needs of nearly more than 200,000 households. 2006 marks its twenty first year of broadcasting.

CBA HONORS WAZT

Six national awards were presented to WAZT TV at the 2004 Convention of the Community Broadcasters Association in Las Vegas, Nevada.

WAZT received the Awards in ceremonies attended by representatives from the 2200 Class A and LPTV television stations across the United States, plus officials from the Federal Communications Commission.

A First Place Award was received for Breaking News Coverage of a recent house explosion in Front Royal, and another First Place Award was received for play-by-play coverage of the Valley Baseball League All Star Game. Second Place Awards were received for the High School Football Game of the Week produced by John Salem; a documentary, Portrait of a Valley Preacher, produced by Kelly and Chris Wetzel; the Best News Program by News Director Phil Luttrell; and the Best Non-Breaking News Story featuring Congressman Bob Goodlatte, produced by Harold Wetzel.
